

His-Lordship Bishop Paride Taban, has been out to USA for the last one month. His return after a long time has created a great joy in many communities around and on staff faces at HTPVK . Here are some of the pics during his arrival on 24/08/2016.

Bishop and the CRS( Catholic Relief Services team) from Juma being welcomed home after one month stays in the U.S by St Thomas Primary School in Kuron.

The community of the Peace Village and the staff were so happy to see their Father home. Traditional dance to show sign of love and joy.

Throwing up the dove was a sign of Peace and Harmony in the Village.

His-Lordship and the CRS representative from juba South Sudan

The Nursery children welcoming Bishop and the Peace Village Advisor John Aswort and the CRS them to HTPVK though it was rainy.

Bishop in the compound of HTPVK and the community plus the school children.

The two doves welcome Bishop too. A sign of Peace.

Women from near by villages came to say hello to Bishop after one month out of HTPBK.
They brought for Bishop a big Cock.